

Hillside, E. Northfield, Mass.,

March 8, 1900.

My dear Miss Coburn:

I was greatly pleased to receive your letter, accepting your appointment to the committee on the Women's Division of the college.

I appreciate your self-sacrifice in accepting this duty: for I realize that <sup>the</sup> work it involves may not be altogether agreeable.

I feel sure, however, that you have the judicial mind so admirably <sup>suited</sup> to represent the womens cause wisely and well.

Lovingly yours,

Hattie M. Parmenter.
