

Maine's Jewish Heroes: Fallen Servicemen

List compiled by Jim Friedlander; poster created by Margie Weiner '12

The Jewish tradition emphasizes the principle of mi-dor le-dor, that a relationship unites Jews “from generation to generation.” In honoring Maine’s Jewish servicemen who lost their lives serving our nation during the world wars, Jews recognize not only their patriotism but also the tradition of bravery and self-sacrifice they passed on to us and to future generations.

The Jewish War Veterans Post #99 in Portland is named for Corporal Jacob Cousins, killed in France on October 14, 1918.

Private John Harrisburg, standing second from the left among fellow Marines, was killed in action on July 19, 1918, in France.

Brothers Charles and Frank Solomon, determined to oppose the Nazis, joined the Royal Canadian Air Force prior to America’s entry into the war. Following the bombing of Pearl Harbor, the brothers transferred to the U.S. Army Air Corps. Frank was killed when his plane was shot down over Germany. Charles was also killed, within a month of his brother’s death.

עשה שלום במרומיו, הוא יעשה שלום עלינו ועל כל ישראל, ואמרו אמן.
 May the One who creates peace on high, bring peace to us and to all Israel and let us say amen.
