

WELCOME TO SPECIAL COLLECTIONS & ARCHIVES!

We collect and care for important materials dating from the 12th to the 21st centuries, and they represent a wide variety of physical formats.

I'm a Colby gal, doing a Biology experiment in the 1950s!

Old campus, downtown, ca.1889

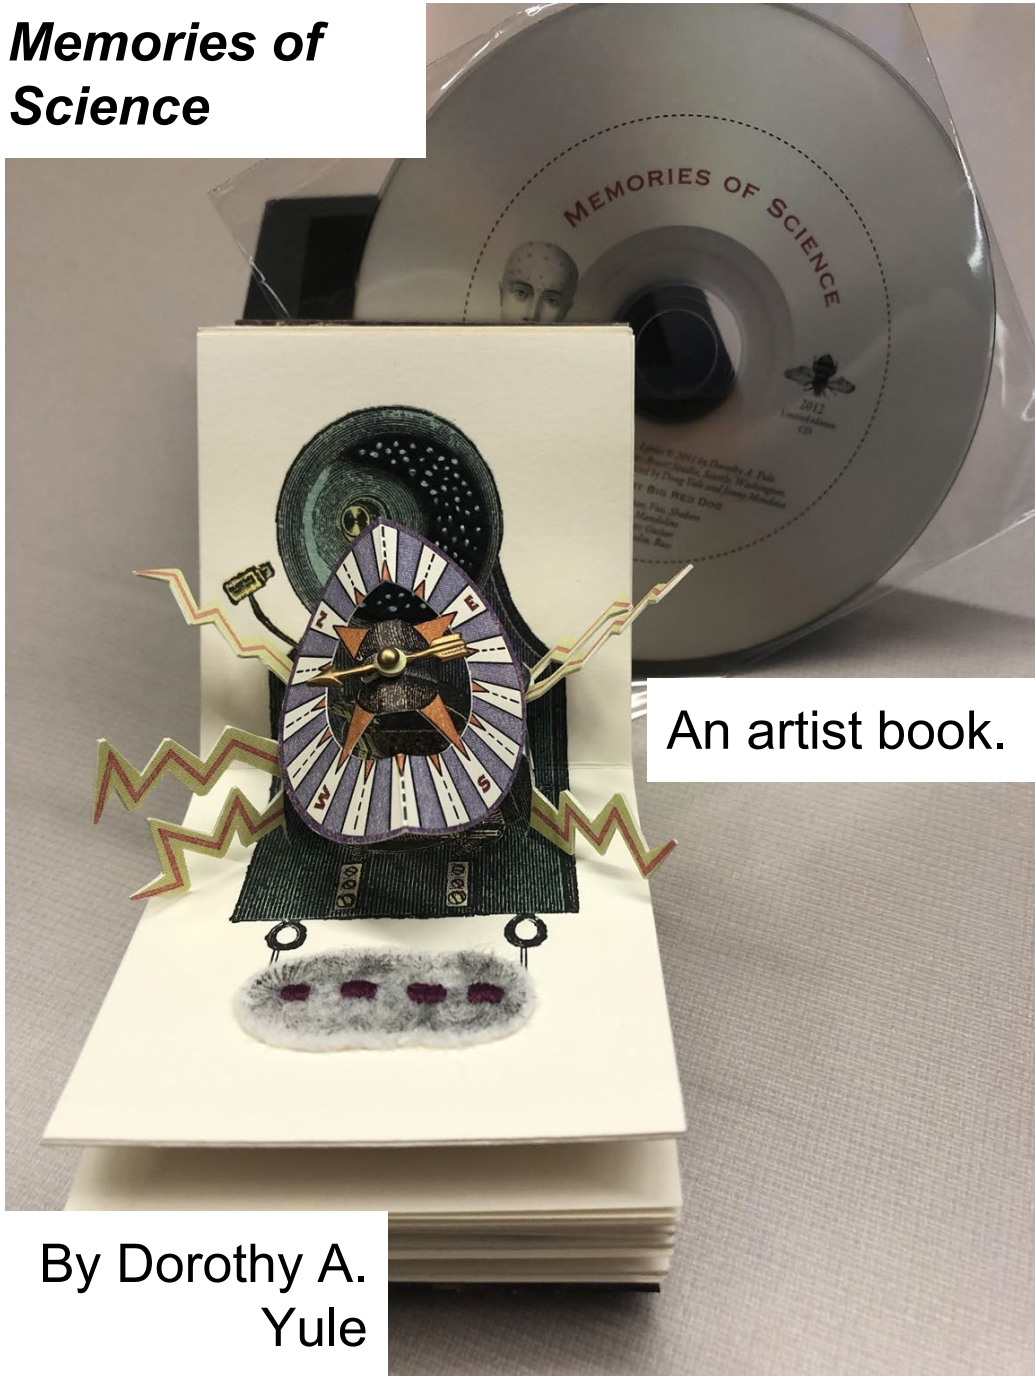

Completed in the mid 1940's, Miller Library was the tallest building in Maine at that time!

I'm the Class Day pipe, a tradition from the 1860's to the 1940's.

Memories of Science

I am a bookplate from our Healy (Irish) Collection!

A manuscript leaf from the 13th century.

An activist poster from the 21st century.

I'm wearing the freshman beanie!

GO MULES!

And you would've had to too, if you attended a hundred years sooner!

This is only the beginning. Come explore!
